

Khalil Coleman's BIO

Background

- Age 31; born July 3rd, 1986
- Born in Brooklyn, NY; raised in Milwaukee, WI
- Father of one son – K'Manuel Shaheed Coleman

Work History

- Over 15 years of experience in youth education and community service as a Social Entrepreneur
 - Founder since 2010 of Changing Lives through Literature
 - Author since 2008 of Time & Place - 'In the life of B and K'
- Author, Co-Founder and Administrator of Safe Zone Initiative (SZI), a citywide violence prevention, intervention & de-escalation pilot 2015-2016

National Acknowledgements

- Featured in the Grio as a 2012 Game Changer Fellow
- Co-authored Can You Hear Us Now, Movie Premiere sold out at Milwaukee's Oriental Theater 2014
 - Featured on PBS News Hour, Black In Milwaukee (2016)
- Featured in The Blood Is At The Doorstep, National Award Winner in Film Festivals 2017

Volunteerism

- 2016 member of National Association of Distinguished Professionals
- Over 15+ combined local and national certificates of recognition and awards
 - Social justice activist & advocate
 - Representative of Growth & Development Organization
- Co-founder of Occupy the Hood Milwaukee, Co-founder of Coalition for Justice
- Co-founder of Milwaukee Public Schools – New School for Youth Empowerment (2017)

School Experience

- Attended Milwaukee Public Schools, Chapter 220, Alternative Education
- Milwaukee Area Technical College enrolled in Teacher Education Liberal Arts & Science